

CCD Media Monitoring

Compiled on 7 June 2010, Monday

S N	Newspaper/Online	Type	Page	Title	Synopsis
1	Kantipur	Vernacular Daily	3	Government's Annual Budget Likely to Be Affected (News)	The budget-making process is likely to be affected due to lack of political consensus. Last year also, the budget was brought by suspending some rules and processes.
2	Gorkhapatra	Vernacular Daily	1	CA Chief Urges PM to Help Implement 3-Point Agreement (New)	CA chairman Subash Nembang urged PM Madhav Kumar Nepal to take initiatives to implement 3-point deal, which was signed among three major political parties to extend the CA, in his capacity of the head of the government. "I requested the PM to play a role in the implementation of the deal as there was growing frustrations among public regarding slow political process in the country," said Nembang.
3	The Kathmandu Post	English Daily	3	CA to Issue White Paper (News)	CA chairman Subash Nembang said that the CA would soon issue a white paper outlining the causes behind the failure to meet the two-year deadline for the promulgation of the new Constitution. The document will outline the tasks accomplished by the assembly in two years, the remaining tasks and the issues that should be addressed by the political parties to finalize the new Constitution.

4	Kantipur	Vernacular Daily	2	Maoists to Protest at Parliament (News)	UCPN (Maoist) has said it will launch protests in the parliament, saying that the budget session of the parliament was brought without consulting the main opposition.
5	Gorkhapatra	Vernacular Daily	6	Consensus a Must Once Again (Editorial)	The three major parties have been interpreting the three-point deal as per their interests. The Maoists reiterating their stance on Sunday hint at complicated situation. The parties should take initiative to resolve all issues in a package.
6	Nagarik	Vernacular Daily	6	Political degradation (Opinion)	Political Analyst C K Lal says if the politics based on narrow-mindedness gains currency then the capacity of the Madhes to give direction to the national politics will be finished.
7	Annapurna Post	Vernacular Daily	6	Playground for conflict (Opinion)	Govinda Bartaman urges political parties to change their course. He writes that it is worth contemplating how the political parties thought that they will not be blamed for complicating the country's problems and increasing difficulties.
8	Naya Patrika	Vernacular Daily	1	Preparation on to make K P Oli a lawmaker (News)	CPN-UML is preparing to nominate KP Oli and Bharat Mohan Adhikari as Constituent Assembly by calling back members nominated under the backward community and region.

9	Tarun	Vernacular Weekly	3	There Was No Need for 3-Point Agreement (Interview)	Nepali Congress Chief Whip Laxman Ghimire writes that there UCPN (M) there was no need for the 3-point agreement. Maoists do not want to discuss the first-point agreement. The second-point has already been discussed and they want PM's resignation only.
10.	Republica	English Daily	3	Never-Ending Political Crisis (Opinion)	Dr Hari Bansha Dulal writes that in a quest for the shortcut through a new set of deals, we might have embarked on a senseless political quagmire. Very soon, another round of deal-making might be needed to troubleshoot the snag in the deal signed on May 28.